This guy is gonna grow up to be bad for sure Look at that outfit It's because an and skywalker in the making they're hilarious You know maybe that's my one yawning Like she's good She's a little little girl That's Charlotte and Kate her name is Charlot Oh Thank you When I named Charlotte my dog Charlotte they were like uh after the princess and I was like I'm sorry what No I've wondered about this like if you were born into a royal family which is it impossible to feel like you're in you're obviously you don't feel like a normal person But what does like when people say like oh I'm not like a normal person Like so do you think like you have like extra ribs or like I don't know like what is so special besides your cash flow No apparently or no flow flow or no flow Um I'm not sure but I had to pull this up because I thought this was wild A woman a woman bought a sculpture at a goodwill for 34 99 It was actually a missing ancient Roman bust That makes sense because whoever stole it to get rid of it would definitely be dumb enough to give it to goodwill Really You think somebody stole it How else would they get from here to Rome Yes I guess so Look at that Isn't that crazy Can you imagine You're finding one person's trash is another person's treasure But apparently it was always treasure probably worth 200,000 200 This is probably $2.2 million Is that what they put it at It's not Yeah Well here this is from Today Show We love the Today Show Um But yeah can you imagine I don't know what the what the ultimate um thing was No no no This is the ultimate price of what the ultimate settlement was We pull it up Um But we got a really big week this week we got uh Selena Um and and then we got major capers coming into the studio Excited Yeah Um Kyle is so excited He connected with the story and he's got a feature film coming out in the works He also has an incredible documentary um which you should absolutely watch Um Before Tuesday it's the guy that I wanna play in a movie and then the next day is the person who puts me in a lot of movies It's a big week Yeah a big big big big big week Uh I'm trying to find out about the on We're not we're not there yet No Slow down What happened there What what what what I don't know I got to the point where I was kind of like is it is that all there is Am I just gonna be a late night party guy There has to be something more for me Every guy hits this day where like it was so much fun to go out get the drinks You know what I mean Sh show the world how amazing of a guy you are Get get a bunch of have an electric night maybe meet some girls maybe maybe get successful and then feel really good about yourself And like because guys get this like we get in this mode since like 20 years old maybe 19 and we just go for it and I'll never forget I think I started college 18 years old started going out like hard hard hard hard But like I got my first like my first real girlfriend was at 20 years old 19 or 20 years old And I remember I went out to the bar like at a habit with my friends and I was like why am I here You're 20 I had that reaction then I was like why am I here Like fake ID Yeah OK We have to bring that up We have to bring that up It's college everyone had a fake ID Especially in the early two thousands Let it go This is like this is like eight years after Bill Clinton relaxed Ok What we were we were in the era of George Bush for for crying out loud Like it's just a throwback era to a time We all miss I don't you don't no you don't miss like high school college years I don't miss anything I I like I wish she was like seven years old Still Listen though Well there are moments where I wish I was because I could have my call my mom again But like I would you could be 30 have your mom again No but it was a it's a different it's a different extent that has to do with you Not your mother What Right I just like the idea of like being taken care of and knowing everything is ok But I don't wanna go back to but I wanna go back to seven But you so you want to be an adult treated like a child No I'm just saying like I missed the days where like everything was taken care of Everything is taken care of I know I know I know And you know what's hilarious I gonna go further with that things were taken care of We always thought as Children our parents were the ones taking care of everything But it's really like and I'm not that religious but it's really like the world just worked out and your parents were going along with it at five I thought my dad was like making the sunrise and like making it sad He wasn't he so cute I know I felt that way about my parents too They were superheroes So we were so we were so little but my dad was literally like at the ceiling we have I think I sent you photos of me and my my parents I was like how is this human doing this How is this human That's so cute I love that Um Yeah I know we think of our parents as like super human until like you know we grow up back to the back to the thing I was talking about No listen every guy goes to this He's like he he wants to be that guy that successful party guy but then it hits you like a ton of bricks Some guys just like ease right out real nicely real gradually And some guys get hit like a ton of bricks Like wait hold on What am I doing here with my my life Why am I out yet again At an establishment with spirits Like what is so successful about this kind of a lifestyle Nothing literally It's going in reverse of what I really want for my life You know what I mean Like II I want like family and laughter and and clarity You you're an old soul though at 20 you had that You're not got a family out in the club I mean you're not getting clarity either Trust me you're not getting anything If there's anything missing from a club it's clarity You can see you can't see in the dark and you I can't hear anyone There's no clarity That's funny You're funny You're funny You are you're super funny Ok Um I speaking of family this is uh this is me and my brother Look at my face Look look look look out Oh wait where did they go Uh Whose hat is that Um That was Monty's hat My dad's friend Monty The I did the same smile No I think that was his look My brother Look how cute he was Oh so sweet so sweet so sweet Um This is uh this is my whole family This is my mom Um my brother me look at me look at me I'm like I don't wanna do this That's with the hat Um And that's my grandfather It's a blurry photo because I like took it with my um hands Um And then uh what else Oh this is my dad Look how cute photos from the past those chairs used to be everywhere Now I can't find them anywhere The ones with the rubber bands going across the whole chair and you'd sit and then you'd get up and I'd stick to you and you have the lines going across an old soul because I don't I don't even know Is that meek See that right there I can't find those chairs Who else misses those chairs we're talking about like you know this is like those you know those chairs remind me of those chairs remind me of when like like you know everyone used to get outside for the barbecue the neighbors would come outside for a wine cooler You'd be like 10 and you're like listen as soon as everyone turns their back I'm gonna get that wine cooler bottle for a wine cooler Jean Shout out to Jean He was our he was our neighbor We had about my mom my mom had awesome neighbors and they all used to come out and barbecue but like they would always have these wine coolers and like towards like the end of the night You know women start getting tipsy men start getting tipsy people start paying attention to the Children and the Children can then swipe a wine cooler and then go drink it Absolutely Now listen my mom I was like 11 You've swiped a wine cooler at 11 hasn't not me Here's a special case Michelle don't sit here and act like you You weren't like born in the Mickey Mouse era you came out of Yeah Yeah I don't even know how you got here Honestly I have no idea how I am for you because like this is the real world you you're funny actually Monty My mom's uh really good friend from um uh what when they got their doctorate um psychology of psychology he was like your mom was a woman like I had never met before Like in in every yeah in every way shape or form No God no no I like all the photos Oh well everyone loved my mom Everyone loved my mom If you met her you love you loved her Everyone loved her Everyone had like a affinity towards her She was beautiful and loving and kind to everyone She was just you know a very attractive soul Yeah so my dad didn't care He was just cool with it Yeah because he knew like he he he loved it He was like would love it He was like because that was you know that's his wife like he's not like oh don't don't talk to her like because he knew that she was very special and yeah they're adorable Couple adorable couple um more stuff that I wanna share with you This is crazy consumer alert Starbucks bottled beverages as uh what we called 300,000 bottles of vanilla frappuccino because they might contain glass The heck this is uh brought to us over by friends at CBS That's crazy Um that so check check your bottles or maybe don't get the frappuccino one glass That's about it right there He be careful but I'll tell you another thing It's gonna be called Kyle Box if I do swallow any glass So maybe I should maybe you wanna go buy some some uh bottles of frappuccino from Starbucks 100% I'm pretty sure pile box on every corner Wait can you sue them And the price will be right Ok I have a I have a question for you This is a business question if or actually not a country with a reasonable price I guess this is more of a law question if they recall the bottles of frappuccinos and you go out and buy one and drink it after they've released a recall Can you sue them Should I call my dad on that Yeah I'm pretty sure you can still sue them because they shouldn't be on the shelf Yeah But if you if you actively recall them they shouldn't be on sale Mm Interesting I don't what is what is this We did We said it on commercial It's a recall but you're still selling them and you're still making money from it So either you recall it or you don't make a decision make a decision Um this mom made a decision by pulling her son out of school because he was snack shamed He brought Pringles to school He's three years old and he was snack shamed What do we think about this Kyle First of all how do you even shame a three year old How does he even know what's going on I mean kids are very uh so she pulled him because the kids were making fun of him The teacher was yeah all of it All the above they snacked Shamed me What was he going to skip He was going to school with like Gwyneth Paltrow's kid What was I'm pretty sure let's let's pull it up So they shamed So a mom on tiktok has gone viral after sharing a recent snack shaming incidents that allegedly occurred at her child's preschool in a video shared to the popular video platform Megan P VA mom too said she was indignant after her son's school sent home a note telling her to send in healthier snacks for him No they're right The school is right I sent my son to school with Pringles Megan mcgann which is very age appropriate Yeah we found out recently that Pringles doesn't even have any potatoes potato in the Pringles So why don't you love your your How about that Well you know that's everyone has a right to give their kids whatever they want 1000% I don't think it's love Exasperated Megan continue They snack shame my old they snack shame me by writing the passive aggressive aggressively on his trash at our house We do not label things as healthy and unhealthy because it starts eating disorders I'm kind of with her because I'll tell you I'm kind of she said she doesn't label what's healthy and what's not because it causes eating disorders first of all that's a that's a boy he has a very low chance of developing an eating disorder That's not true That's not true Boys don't develop eating disorders as common as as women do not as prevalent but yes they do as prevalent It's the chance of him developing an eating disorder from telling him what's healthy and what's not is so low If you look it up maybe she had an eating disorder and disordered disordered eating can be passed down from person to person That's more of her passing it down Tell him what's what's healthy and what's not But maybe like this one you send him to school with food that's not food and then he gets shamed for it That's gonna give him an eating disorder like she's so bad in this Let me give him fake food because he might have an eating disorder if I give him healthy food This is backwards Cheetos are just as bad as so like if your kid Cheetos are just as bad as Pringles So you said anything about Cheetos I'm just saying like why I'm just I'm just throwing this send your kid the Cheetos don't send your kid to chips in your lunch No never No I had a peanut butter and jelly sandwich an apple and then a snack some kind of a brownie or something Sure But like my mom didn't send me to school with just Pringles because she loves me it's a snack It's a snack A three year old with a full can of Pringles But I'm also not for shaming anyone I see a three year old eating Pringles I'm shaming the mom I'm with the school mcdonald's Ok So more on the story You know what I think Um I think I think you know everyone has a right to I love that she like goes online and it's just like my son got shamed for eating Pringles Everyone's like yeah I middle middle America Let's see there are no comments signed with the school I think everyone you know I think there's middle America is not gonna side with school That's for middle America You mean the the most obese part of the world Yeah Ok let me just hold my breath for them Um I want to pull this up I thought this was really cute I thought ok Kay wants to get married so badly This is what you're gonna have in what 80 years in 80 years when I'm 100 and 20 This is what it's gonna look like Yeah Oh there's my hero Look how cute goes My hero watch him as he goes I've also realized these are all white people but you know you know that's another thing everyone keeps like throwing these like oh look a I generated this picture It's always white people I'm like what is going on here You know a I it was it's like like was a I born in France It's hilarious My dad went to church over the weekend and um he brought back like a Jesus Christos like uh picture and it was like Jesus with like blonde hair and blue eyes and I was like that What are the odds that he actually has blonde hair and blue eyes blue eye People gotta let it go but everything can be blue you know couldn't have blue eyes but dark hair and dark skin for sure Close to impossible for him That blue eyes in Mesopotamia go there go there right now And one person um I thought this was really cute Uh So uh was on the Today Show and she was talking about um you know like her movie and then her mom like this is so funny Her mom like interrupts the interview Um And she goes I knew they'd always get back together because she prayed for 20 years that they would now J Lo has to be careful because she's had several relationship since then You know what I mean And like the father of her Children obviously happens within the past 20 years Like she can um Anthony Yeah Listen listen listen she's incredible Then she says this new album is like nothing we've ever heard Jennifer do before And then when you talked about Ben what did you tell me She is my mom she knew you'd always knew that you would always get back together because I prayed for you Ok So yeah I get it Um like you said the Mark Anthony thing is kind of rough on top of it though Remember when she started dating Mark Anthony Everyone was like it kind of made your head turn a little bit because you were like from Ben to Mark It's one of those things where like the woman like dates the very opposite of the last person she was dating because he was like so he was like such a thing for her She's like let me go date the very opposite happened to me Oh really First girlfriend when we broke up she dated some like blonde haired surfer I drove a a black guy football player uh sports car Her next boyfriend was a blonde haired lacrosse player with a pickup truck I was like oh wow look at you What just shows that she was open to all or went for the very opposite The point is I don't think like J Lo that she truly like like it almost like feels like she just did something very opposite But like always wanted Ben who was saying Ben was good in bed No because I was on the way home and we were talking about something about the show and you ended up telling me that and I found that very interesting because Ben is like the strong type and I gotta say if I had to bet like what type of demographic I like guy would be like the best in the bed would probably be the short silent type That's really funny She said he was um Anthony Like who I feel like Latinos might be better Who knows Sensual Sure That's a question Still Look at bet He's got a drag out on his back Who knows what he's doing to be Maybe still not Is it there I thought maybe it's not that's a painful thing but like you but can you look at J's face for a second She's like look her mom is talking and she's just like yeah Yeah Wait wait wait wait wait wait look she's saying like look at look at J Lo look at J Lo She's like ok mom look at your eye roll Wait wait wait wait wait wait She's like can we get back to it She's like she's like can we get back to it please Yeah Yeah Yeah Like isn't that crazy Um because you know it's nice to bring her she brings her mom everywhere but sometimes hey mom like this that's the reality No your mom came here She didn't divulge if I brought her here enough times and I was talking gibberish she would correct me Gibberish Sure But like he's in love in love with what who else Um This is cool Look at this Um Not that it's cool but uh five years ago she was told she was never gonna walk again Look at her go Isn't that crazy Um she walked a mile for the first time in almost six years What happened It took her five hours and 58 minutes But she did it Look at that Are those her legs or are those prosthetic I think those are actual legs Dude whoever just ran past her has got to get away It's a race It's a race it's a race It was a race I think that's awesome I mean look at you guys does anyone else Have you ever been on this Have you ever been on the sidewalk And like there's like an elderly person in front of you when they're walking really slow and you don't want to pass them because it just makes you feel like you know kind of like a jerk So I I'll just like walk slow I'll just walk You don't do that and of course and doesn't do that and he's like move move walking Oh man Um We gotta give a congratulatory to Miss Simone Biles She marries Jonathan Owens again during a destination wedding in New Mexico What do you mean They got divorced Uh No no no they got married twice Um They look adorable Congratulations to Simone Um So that was cool Um And then this is also super cool Um Miss Y had to become the first female rapper inducted into the rock and roll Hall of Fame Male I got to give it up to the rock and roll Hall of Fame They're very inclusive They are this is not the first black person They've been ducked into the Hall of Fame Well I mean how many I mean like what rock and roll Yeah But like Lenny Kravitz he Jimi Hendrix like look at all the people of color that have been making music and they've been doing it forever and doing awesome So it should be color first Elliot though She's awesome So you have people of color Uh Well he is right He's a mixed um Derek Jeter welcomed a baby boy I didn't even know he was married Did you know he's married I have no idea He's married he has three kids Um I don't know who that is Yeah Keep it Um He was like the um what's that guy's name Pete Davidson of my time was really how so what do you mean Ok Ok Ok Ok Wait no he great at comedy What are you talking about Name Two good movies Pete Davidson has been in two good Staten Island Yeah that wasn't a comedy Ok What's number two Um Well SNL but I don't think that's a movie obviously Shout out to Pete Davidson though Love your talent Why I I stand up It was actually really good Yeah I left when he talked about Kim Kardashian I'm not gonna lie Um Why are we trying to figure out What So so this is this is all over the news today Oh yeah let me get to Jamie Fox But Ray Leo's uh cause of death has been revealed apparently there was fluid in his lungs and he suffered from a respiratory um insufficiency which is the respiratory which is fluid in the lungs And I mean what why you think it's drugs related What what I can't say You think it's alcohol No What why can't you say Why why would you do that Can't do it So Jamie Fox like we don't know what you think Like Martin Lawrence has come out and said someone's trying to kill him That's crazy Ok You know what's so crazy is I got in the um I got in my Uber yesterday to go to the airport and first of all how did you that I'm gonna tell you I got into an Uber to go to the airport yesterday Um it takes an hour for my dad to get to the airport and then another what another five hours six hours to get here Um but when I was on my way she was like what do you do And I said I'm an on camera host and I'm a producer and produce shows and she was like oh cool Like I tell her I told her about Good Day Live and she was just like oh you must know so much drama I was like I don't actually what drama do you know And she's like no come on like you got to know a little bit of tea And I was like I don't really I don't really go out that much and me and my co host Nothing Yeah Yeah So I said I said what do you know And she goes what's going on with Jamie Foxx And then she started telling me that she was she black Yes Yeah That's why why because all the black people are like what is going on with Jamie Fox I'm gonna tell you something that no one black people don't talk about But they definitely think about all the time The Tuke Institute experiments Ok They are consistently always thinking about getting poisoned Always You think that way Everyone thinks that way Really Yes Oh syphilis is very easy to just give someone it's very easy to give someone syphilis in in in that being said has come out and said that like someone was someone he thinks someone's trying to kill Jamie Um and who was it like a decade ago That was like an on Hollywood Boulevard waving a gun screaming They're trying to kill me It was like some star that like had like a mental snap Oh it was more Lawrence It really was It really was it was more Lawrence like 10 to 15 years ago He was like someone's trying like Hollywood is trying to erase me and he hasn't really come out with anything since That's weird Yeah That's a little weird I'm not gonna lie I think the whole thing is bizarre I thought it was weird that she told me about Jamie Foxx and like she was like do you know where he is And I was like why would I know where he is Because everyone's kind of like well what happened You know I don't know Is he ok I hope he's OK It's for the conspiracy theorist It's a good time for conspiracy theorist You are a conspiracy theorist You love being a conspiracy theorist I don't know why but you you love it I want to know what you I want to know about Ray Liotta to you though Fluid in the lungs Oh is that why Why do you look at me like that Is that alcohol What is that What I know that um my mom had that because of cancer Yeah like that like because I asked because she wasn't able to eat or anything and I was like can't you like give her an ID And they were like we can't because it could do the opposite Really Yeah I was getting like really like yeah I know not to go dark but like so that's what I'm saying is like it could have been that dark place right now We're not in a dark place Listen we're just cause of death It's all over the news It's all over the news Um I'll bring it like I'll bring it right back to the service again Ok This is Megan Markle over the weekend Apparently she actually can't like can't be se they're tough They're too opposite There's nothing in comparison to she actually kind of looks like the guy that we saw The first photo I'm not gonna lie The guy with the with the thing with the like the the skies She looked like the blow Oh she actually don't look like the blush Like the guy at all Really She has a scarf and a hat on The guy had gray hair a mustache and a beard Is she she doesn't look anything like that she herself or is or is that like her photographer perfectly framing her out Oh that's hilarious You think probably secret service right behind her I don't have secret service Do you think she has secret service Have security guards Are you kidding Yeah Yeah Every day people are trying to take ransom from her Probably What am I looking at this Got me excited It's a flash mob here in Santa Monica Look look No you're not into a flash mob You're not into it Kyle No no no I'm saying if you're gonna do a flash mob thing you gotta be good at dancing This isn't doing it for me Wait wait watch watch watch Just keep watching This is uh from Angie Coria Life 2.0 we have a life 2.0 Is it Paul Oh Snap Can you imagine Yeah Can you imagine if you're just in Santa Monica And all of a sudden Paul Abdo starts dancing That's a thriller move Look at that That's epic What So cool She's so little How old is she now She's adorable She's so adorable gorgeous gorgeous gorgeous And she's like she's getting up there She looks awesome so cute so cute That made me happy Like she's now releasing all these awesome videos um on Instagram of her dancing Um So you never stop dancing And then this is again from Angie Coria underscore life 2.0 hey and we have a life 2.0 here Um but this is cool I got excited about that It made me happy anyway I'm just I'm just the guy that's trying to get the coffee and the flash mob is in between me and the coffee shop and I'm not gonna wait seven extra minutes and I'm upset about it That's what it is That's why I had that reaction because that's my luck I'm like oh man thank God I'm almost at the coffee shop Oh that do it Excuse me Could I just get I just got right in front of that camera and I just and they're like oh boo boo excuse me If you can just hear me real quick I just gotta get into that All right I'll wait I'll wait I'll wait because if I don't I'll be that guy which I usually am Oh my God Kyle That is so funny I'm that guy You are always that guy That is hilarious That is hilarious Let's let's pull up uh Kyle's corner Shall we finally get to the actual big thing Wedding planners and workers reveal toxic and red flags on the big day And their stories are juicy juicy Let's get to the actual article Ok we get into the actual article Kyle Why did that bring you so much joy I like juicy stuff Doesn't everyone everyone loves I like fruit I love Yes Yes Yes Yeah we got it We got it We got it No 000 yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah I see it Ok Don't tell me one time Don't as I wait Uh-huh you need me I caught the bride having with the best man when industry workers she had the couples they knew were doing with it Oh wow Let's see it Let's just see the debauchery people who work in the wedding industry Have you ever seen a couple that immediately thought this will end in a divorce and then 85% of the time it will end in a divorce So 85% Is it really that high It's been that high I didn't know that Yeah Well wedding planners workers and everyone in between reveal their shocking experiences with brides and grooms their stories prove that all marriages aren't meant to be Especially when the warning signs happen on the big deck warning signs on the big day Let's hear it So here's some juicy stories from wedding planner I heard from a wedding planner that the bride and her bridesmaids went through at least 10 bottles of champagne the morning of the wedding and were ridiculously drunk Two of the three bridesmaids fell and had trouble getting up on the way down the aisle and the bride and the maid of honor made it down the aisle But with great difficulty the groom was basically holding the bride up Oh gosh for the entirety of the ceremony And she loudly refused to sit in a chair That's amazing The wedding planner said the couple argued the night before over whether they were going to drink before the wedding the groom wanted to stay sober until the reception but the bride disagreed Yeah that's why the the groom knew this is what his wife does the morning after she drinks He's like you can't do that because we got a wedding and she's like I'm gonna deal with anyone and guess what Mr Groom That's what you signed up for sir I know I'm pretty sure that she's probably like this from the beginning This is not this is not anything new when you like I yeah I mean well I don't think there's anything wrong with drinking A a is probably in the crowd I'll stop I don't think I don't think she's not I always wanted him to be the person that says I object Did I tell you about what I said in the courtroom one time I object Well I was going to get a $600 ticket and the judge and the prosecutor were very very was it the same judge that I had And she was like I got affinity for you because she was like you know Mr Trueblood Uh I well no first the prosecutor goes you know we're gonna let him off da da da da And I was like oh well I I think that's uh fine if unless Mr True blood doesn't want that to happen And I go well your honor I always wanted to I always wanted to yell I object You are such a ladies' man I can't with you I don't think right now is the right correct time Oh my gosh This is the woman that like also was all about like making jokes too Yeah Oh she love you Wow Yeah You know everyone has everyone has their type not everyone some people some people see me as as super um uh I have to be able to you know like like they're like you're a little bit too much you know what I mean And other people to you and other people other people love me Like you're lucky that you brought me to your thing Or else you'd be paying $600 right now I'll tell you that I I'm grateful for you I said you are too much but so am I too much for you Too much for the judge The judge Love you You're not too much You you can be too much I can be too much But I think I acknowledge what I see in myself That's why I can say that to you Do you Yeah I'm too much But you'd rather be too much than too little 1 billion% right Like that too much is not an offense to make sure that you're too little Yeah Yeah Can we make that clear that like we you know if you say I'm too much personally you're too little Yeah Yeah Yeah I'm the kind of guy that's like when someone rejects me I'm like wow your taste is horrible It's really unattractive Like how you know what you're not attracted to It's hilarious I had this one girl tell me she was just like you know you're a little bit much and I was just like really you are so painful I myself I'm right there It's like there's screens everywhere You guys can see this but like there is TV S everywhere in the studio That's why they were like flip Remember the day when they flipped them they took three TV S and flipped them around So I I couldn't even do the show I was like I don't even know how to do this without watching Let's get to another one accent for the rest of the day But on the night of the wedding the wedding planner brought the bottle of champagne up to the room along with some other things we did for a wedding night I quickly opened the door and walked straight in the bride was Oh no What Oh jeez She was with the best man Oh that's always I feel like that's always like a I feel like that's a thing Well it's it's you know what it is it's because the best man in the groom are usually very similar in person Yeah And so like when you look at the best man you're like there's a version of my husband that's either not best it's just different but still like safe I know you guys have probably built a relationship just as exciting as the one that you're in there Why why do you think they like I don't know I'll tell you what my best man does that everybody's got to die Things that you don't see on him for 10 I'm joking But like like honestly like what are you thinking Where's the group by the way Where where the group with the with the Yeah we even think about that Like where is he right now Where is he What do you think with the maid Usually when I literally found this usually when one of the people is cheating and they think they're being so bad both of them are cheating but like the other one the other one is cheating the other one being bad kind of kind of that's how it starts out Um what's interesting though is that the person that cheats uh always gets hurt the most Oh of course because the person who cheats is the one who ends up without the person that they really love Not even that It's like you don't under like in the moment you don't understand the person you're cheating with sees you as a whore Man or woman who things we cannot say on Amazon for 500 please That's just the word what I mean That's just the word Is that a curse Really Can you say Pimp Ask Andy if you can say that you say these words No you missed it I said I said horror not good No you missed it My face was like hilarious my face just like what in the world What in the world Kyle No you can't say that Ok Um It was a quick engagement in marriage and I got the feeling maybe too quick The wedding and reception were at the groom's parents place and his mom had a lot of input as said his sister what Why does your sister That's weird Bride got shut down whenever she talked I arrived at the shoot the bride getting ready She was alone with her hair and makeup person I thought that was that person was her friend but she wasn't Her bridesmaids weren't even there two hours went by and she couldn't get a hold of them The makeup person left and I helped her put on her veil and shoes I felt so bad for her This is this was supposed to be your big day and there she was having a stranger and telling her she looked great This is the wedding planner man Where were all her bridesmaids The bride's bridesmaids finally showed up The maid of honor was the groom's sister Friends When the bride questioned them the sister said they went out for breakfast Oh what They didn't invite her to breakfast That is weird Um You know and the and the bridesmaids were invited and they didn't invite the bride So here's my thing on this Maybe they thought and I'm I'm this is not like obviously an excuse for them to not invite them but maybe they thought she needed all the time to get ready because trust me it takes a long time for me to get ready I can't even imagine on my wedding day how long it's gonna take Although I probably want to just like do my makeup and not have like my makeup done for me because like have you seen women get their makeup done Sometimes It's like a lot I would keep it very natural looking while I'm dating or be like look how you've been looking you'd be dating her and then marrying her Look how you've been looking The entire Yeah Yeah Yeah I think I would just do like long wait and then a beautiful strapless dress Um I kind of want to get married on the actually the more I think about it I just want to party 80 80% 85% of people get divorced I don't wanna get divorced I'm gonna be the only 15% Is it 15 It's crazy like you don't get a choice whether you're in the 18 or or the 85 or 15 0 There's no everyone gets divorced This is coming from a married person Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah Oh OK If you get married now cause you got married before the internet essentially Oh That's a beautiful thing like you guys were so like mm a different time Yes Yes because you got the here's a question Did you guys live together before you got married You did Well I feel like that's a no no no that's you're supposed to move in on the marriage because then it's part of the it's part of the marriage I mean I think it's good to like experience what it could look like and then be like yeah that's not for me Right I mean it's it's kind of like it's kind of like the sex word where you gotta kind of chest it out before you do it Like what did I say I think I told Andy like something about like how many are coming out of you right now What I don't know what no wire Listen What are you looking at I'm listening Oh ok It's just like in production one on one We haven't dropped our phone in a while so I figured I'd do something No My thing is is like I I was like in my last relationship I was just saying like I couldn't be with somebody in my 500 square foot apartment I need space It's too much Maybe that's a test Maybe the person you can be with Maybe the person you can be with in a 500 square foot place is the right person or maybe because then ultimately it's not going to be 500 square feet No no no Yeah It will be like uh like times I don't even know how you doing 500 right now by yourself I know I like sometimes get overwhelmed to step out on the balcony and be like II I actually have never in it I'm only when I go to bed Ok Last one for this gloomy topic I was helping out my parents' restaurant where a huge wedding party was hosted I was busy serving drinks and suddenly yelling and screaming started right behind me It turned out that Brian had somehow found out that the groom hooked up with her sister right before the wedding ceremony and apparently on a few occasions in her anger she stabbed him in the chest with a dinner fork for him I had to call it to the police and it was like that's amazing Oh my God You know what I'll say this I bet they stayed together I bet you they did Didn't I tell you about that thing where the girls like you stabbed him in the if you press charges you could go to jail for like 15 years for that most He was in the catering business for over 20 years worth a lot of weddings and receptions And once I heard a bride at the reception during the toast say that she actually thought she was asking out the groom's twin brother on their first date Oh my God And how the twin was more compatible Then she ended the toast with well as nice as you all as you are doing a great first husband Oh my God I walk past the camera man and you could hear me on tape saying did you get that Tell me you got that hilarious You know I said this to you I said I said when we pulled the soulmate thing I was just like well we may not be together now but maybe after our first marriages Yeah Yeah Yeah that that maybe we'll come back around because you just assume these days you know you're going to get married again It's a joke I'm not gonna I can't do that It's like it's it's too much whatever have you Let's just make sure the kids call it an institution make sure the kids are happy You should make you happy You gotta be happy now for 18 years 18 years you got to me if you got my kid you got me for 18 years Tell me that right now Wait even if she like cheats on you and she's like she's not gonna cheat Ok We'll see a face and then she can't do wait honestly I joke I kid I laugh but like wait what what do you do I joke I kid I laugh but I joke I kid I laugh I there was a guy on Steve Harvey that actually made a joke to his wife that they were on the marriage thing and he was like he was like what was the biggest mistake Steve Harvey goes what was the biggest mistake you made on your wedding day And he goes say I do ha ha ha Just kidding And then like two months later the man is in the news for date now No that's not a thing That's not a thing Not with me But like I I thought you said like when girls are like or like they like have like their down and out you're like that's an easy way in for the guy that like has a crush on them to go in for the move That's what I was describing your situation Oh yeah Yeah Oh I do I think you think you're saying like guys do guys do that Some guys look for girls who are going through something at the moment and then they they tell them everything they want to hear and then they go in for the oh my gosh Well they go in for it They make the move They go this is a perfect time Perfect time She's the most vulnerable right now probably in her entire life this week Let me just well I'm the perfect guy How are you You want a cookie I'll get you one You want a water I'll get you one You want to back up I'll do it for you But like you could do it on a random day The girl would be like stop touching me But if you do it on a day the day she's grieving She's like oh my God you're like Favio I love you You're the perfect man and you're like yeah I know And all you really needed was for her to be going through something and this girl wasn't buying it She was like let's see let's see The I'm such a nice guy to her and I always put up with her mood swings and let her If you say the words put up you're not getting it If you say the two words put up to her to her friends to your friends you're not getting in here we go Uh I put up with the mood swings and let her cry to me and shit And I'm so in the friend zone let her cry and I'm so in the friend zone she openly talks about being with other guys That's what's called being a friend If you were such a nice guy you wouldn't be complaining about her treating you like a friend If you only put up with her she put up with her and hopes that she maybe one day she'll you know you're not a nice guy and you don't deserve to have her The only reason you don't deserve to be in the friend zone is because you're not a friend at all You're a selfish something and put your genitals before her feelings Wow David told him straight that woman who whoever said that drinks whiskey moving on This guy who thought his friend was entitled to women just because of how he looks and how much money he makes I got a guy like that I got a couple of guys like that Yeah And they get so upset that the thing about these guys they get so upset when any other dude hooks up with a woman Yeah it's they they feel like they should be the guy that up with the person because they feel models all day long Male models they they got a model If they're not the guy getting the attention you can see it in their face It's really weird Yeah Yeah So male models are more like well think about it like you're a male model for over five years People tell you you're so good looking when you're standing next to like regular dudes and you think they're regular dudes But like some girl may not want your threaded eyebrows She may want to get my eyes You have really good eyebrows but she may want the scruffy looking dude because that's her style and they go for it And then the guy who spent two hours in the mirror is distraught I love watching it to be honest with you not to be too you know but I love I love saying that Can we move on Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah Please let's keep the show Moving Keep the show going This nice and stable guy who thought he deserved a date after catfishing 200 women to try to prove his misogynistic point Well I don't get it Uh Moving this guy who thought he deserved constant communication with his dating match simply because they matched a few hours prior Can you reply to my text question mark You're just gonna ghost me I wasn't on my phone Sure What are you doing Stop ignoring my text I'm at a party I'm not gonna be on my phone at the time to answer you Not like that I have not like I have to anyway I'm not saying you should always be on your phone Just answer when I text you Not that hard Right I'm just gonna un match because I'm not feeling this You're being very pushy when we just matched a few hours ago I'm only texting I'm not being pushy Just worried about you Babe you're at a party without me Don't want anything to happen to you Right Bye at the end Yeah because that's where she goes She goes to parties where she may disappear Yeah Yeah A nice guy who expected a girlfriend even though he seems to hate all women Wow Is it tough out there I don't think it is I I don't think it is I feel like you know I'm very I'm a big believer and I only want to meet people in in IRL Um like I've never done I did the dating apps once for like a day and I was just like I'm over it because I dated someone for a year and a half from a dating app How'd that go Ok I thought she called the other day and I kid you not my stomach dropped because I was like I didn't just want I didn't want to go through it It was like reliving like past trauma and don't get me wrong Awesome girl Wish her the best No hard feelings whatsoever It was a it was a good relationship I just I don't know for whatever reason I thought she it was from the app It's just if you honestly think from five pictures in two sentences you're gonna find compatibility You don't live in the real world Well then why would you have the app Because I was horny I think that I don't think you could save for $500 please I cannot say that either I don't think so Kyle I'll tell you what I'll tell you what just did We should make a compilation of all the things you can't say it It's all from today Oh my God That's crazy We're doing we're doing pretty well I uh I don't know about you I mean you you've actually lasted a year of almost a year of like keeping it pretty G rated I'm still trying This is not even close To what I how I usually speak I've done very well What was it June to May Full year No we started in June It's yeah we're not we're not a June yet but we went from June to May That's 12 months June to June will be 13 months Oh really So if you have a baby on June 1st of 2022 once you hit that June again the baby is one Why Because it completed the year Yes Yes But it would be a year It would be it would try to repeat a month within a year You can't because you can only do one month a year No I get that But like from June to June is a year from June to June Wait why do we celebrate birthdays If it's like it's a full year That's correct It's a full year Yeah but we didn't start Um You see where I'm going with this May if we started in May if we started in June of like 2022 June end of June So we have to get to the end of June had we started for instance like in a fiscal year If we start in June do you celebrate your birthday in May Um So I'm saying like if we started in yes June to June is a like a celebration is a year anniversary Wait what No like if we were if we were to get married and it was July 19th and you celebrated then on June 19th for a year No it's 11 months I'm so confused You said about the day you said about the day you said June day day to day Yeah that's the thing But month to month June to May it's here I don't see how that's a year We're basically out of here but we're I mean by the day I've been here for a year by the count we've been put it this way We've been here for 12 months not a complete 12 months 12 months but not it's competition but for me a complete 12 months Oh look um Albert Preciado is on uh the bear TV I've been I've been checking him out over there A very different outlook on him now that he stood on top of a Lamborghini flexing and a private jet behind him Is he gonna use the w hotel What happened with that pending go Marisa Gold I was on the text thread with Albert and Sylvia and they were like uh where's Michelle I was like this is Michelle like yeah they were like oh no the first person that interviewed us she knows hotels and I was like oh yeah yeah yeah let me let me know hotels doesn't she Yeah lot of hotels Yeah we did a review on a hotel once Marisa was like incredible at that Yeah she's she's Marisa is great on the red carpet She's really good on location I think she like is extraordinary on location I've said that I told that to Andy I was like she's great on red carpets Not that she's not great sitting down in the studio But you guys have a good show together But then I like you guys are very like you guys are on different planes of reality No actually I think we could have a good show because we're so different She could she she has like my energy kind of kind of kind of Yeah I think it would be a great she's super intelligent and very funny and you know like why not Like you can have a good show with a lot of people You what move on Ok Uh This guy who was expected to win the match because he doesn't care about looks Oh like roll Oh let's get to let's get to something else Something Let's Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah Kyle's corner please I beg you I I am I am I am Well you know Kyle in Kyle's corner you got to send more things other than Ok Ok Ok This thing what's this Oh no no no no no This is too complicated It's explaining gravity It's OK You can explain it go for it OK So why if you move in a straight line on a globe and this will explain it to you if you move in a straight line on a globe you'll actually meet Like technically you're not moving on a straight line when you're on a globe Right Look at this Right Technically if you remove the globe it's just two people moving together right Because the sphere will bring all lines together So we're never technically moving on a straight line However if you're in space and you like throw something out the window it'll move directly straight with technically parallel with you I know I know I know It's it's because of gravity It's not that complicated but but it's but it's it's explaining how gravity alters the way we actually uh see I said I said this to you Wait what what is this This is so dark I can't even what is going on here Why is it dark This is what it is It used to be And I I'm from 96 I was nine in 96 That was what it was My mom was like I was getting in trouble for not coming inside And now kids since 2016 I got in trouble for not going outside Ok Oh I don't wanna look up all this I just it was the first one That's why I said I thought it was dark because I kept the TV lost weight We gained it Oh look at this And that's 1990 The TV was bigger and the guy was smaller and 2017 the guy is bigger and the TV Skinnier then Then what happen here Yeah we can't watch that That's pretty cool That's pretty cool Cool What's wrong with the guy tatting his entire body Like first of all leave him alone First of all the shorts are basic it Do you see this His shorts are basic but he tattooed his whole body But the guy is wearing like you just you know I like that then Yeah we're we're out we're out of Kyle's corner for that because we can't Yeah What's this What's this What's this Oh You know I we were talking about this a little bit that like being yeah being on TV can affect your mental health Let's get to the I told you that if I was on V as a little little kid I think I don't think I I didn't have the right support um And the right backing Um And thank God I had the parents that I did because if we see I told you Amanda Bynes it made me so sad Shout out to Amanda Bynes She's doing her best with her mental health and she's been you know she's been in limelight since she was like 67 years old I know bananas It's like you know how are you even supposed to get a grasp on reality when you've been playing pretend professionally You know your body doesn't know the difference between reality and and I think that's what you just said there I think is gonna be a big tell into like figuring out psychologically what's what's going on with some of these child stars I've lost rest in Peace Blake Haron He was the uh child star of that movie Shilo Uh from 98 He was a teen star He was on the cover of Teen Vogue He he passed in 27 he passed in 2017 because you know child star growing up didn't know you know it's it's a what what do we get to here trying to find your thing Your uh your thing Where is it What is it It's the cringy stuff from reality Sorry Scroll up there it is Oh here it is Here you go Bring it on Bring it on We always wonder like what mental health do we suffer from when we're on television Can you scroll please Thank you Like thank you Oh I've been hearing a lot about Love is blind Um there's a couple of uh couples that have been speaking out that have uh been creating some ripples Um I never saw the show myself Ok So number one uh Miss Great Britain Zara Holland who was on Love uh who was on Love Island in 2016 spoke out on in 2018 about her experience Uh she noticed a massive change in her personality What did she notice I feel like she never and it kind of I kind of had no go to at all And I wasn't really that happy She said I never thought I'd be able to get out of this dark place I went to It was really hard It was a very weird experience I never thought I'd be able to get better But why Personally I'm gonna say this I think that people that prescribe to the to the like the format of reality television and like run with it without ever like checking their own mental stability is gonna end up in depression because it's not how to live life Like you don't supersede a really emotional moment with setting it up You know what I mean Like they're like 00 push push push push him there And then like it's like really blurring the lines between like what really matters what's real and what's just for the for show and it it feels like you're almost betraying yourself Yeah I mean it's not real Reality TV is not real but like for two actors sitting up here to explain like how reality like how reality shows might do that to people It's because when you act when I do like I I never forgot I was at a dinner once and the the girl goes oh I'll never date an actor because they're so good at lying Oh I didn't even think about that And I was like I was like that's the most untrue statement and everyone was like Kyle how could you possibly fight that statement And I was like because if we were lying we wouldn't get the job If you could tell we were lying we wouldn't get the job If we were lying we wouldn't get the job The camera If I put a camera on you and you try to lie it can it's easily tell You can't lie to the camera I am the worst liar in the history of mankind right And what actors do is they find the truth in the story and then just outlive it and in that because we're not lying we're not blurring the lines between reality and pretend Does that make sense Yeah But then I had this conversation with my Uber driver yesterday When you lie you're trying to put something that's pretend in reality When you're not lying you're aware you're pretending and you're pretending you're pretending in the play area right Yeah But your body your body doesn't know the difference So technically you're telling the truth technically So so what they're saying is and this is why like so many actors when they take on like very serious like psycho psychotic like roles and they get sick from it It's because they're so in it like their body doesn't know the difference between make believe and pretend So I told my this is from my Uber driver yesterday She was saying like she's like apparently we don't know the difference between make believe and pretend and I was like I'm just gonna make believe that I'm Oprah Winfrey all day and then I ended up on the plane next to those two guys Yeah King Kyle Belova Yeah Belova just did a movie Thanks so much for the $20 million No I mean we have this with our friend Natasha Graziano Be it until you become it So there see there's a lot of like you know pretending lots of pretending like look at Megan Markel She used to pretend she was royal in her backyard when she was a little girl Did you know there's all forms of pretending isn't there There's like different forms of pretending What do you mean child play or supposed mock trial or like um actually deceitful pretend you know what I mean When you're trying to deceit we're trying to lie to someone You're trying to pretend in order to trick them I'm confused when you're pretending 000000 I am from Whoville I do listen I listen to you You said when you're being deceitful you're trying to trick someone But I was trying to follow what you were saying It's like really That's not fair That's not nice That's it What you supposed to do That's our first music Let's get me on the side No I'm gonna sweat It is hot in here Finally Some hot days Well I hope you guys enjoyed today I hope you enjoyed my vulgar Language If you didn't have a good day I hope I hope we helped you out Um How how's it going Wherever you are in your day Spread the good the good to whoever you may We'll see you tomorrow Bye Good job You did a good job Thanks You're welcome You're welcome I better see you tomorrow So Wow that's definitely not better Forcing somebody to be There is not a good thing Oh a check My A li
